

THE LORD'S DAY

The Sixth Day of November, Two Thousand Eleven
11:00 a.m.

THE PRELUDE J.S. Bach
"If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee"

To worship the Triune God in Spirit and truth is a believer's most important duty. As we worship together, we invite you to be a participant, not a spectator. Join in the praise with song (even if the tune is unfamiliar) and in the joyful giving of tithes; add your "Amen" to the prayer of the elders; listen to God speaking through the preaching of His word. May our Sovereign Lord receive glory in all our worship!

Q: What shall be done to the righteous at the day of judgment?

A: At the day of judgment, the righteous, being caught up to Christ in the clouds, shall be set on his right hand, and there openly acknowledged and acquitted, shall join with him in the judging of reprobate angels and men, and shall be received into heaven, where they shall be fully and forever freed from all sin and misery; filled with inconceivable joys, made perfectly holy and happy both in body and soul, in the company of innumerable saints and holy angels, but especially in the immediate vision and fruition of God the Father, of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of the Holy Spirit, to all eternity. And this is the perfect and full communion, which the members of the invisible church shall enjoy with Christ in glory, at the resurrection and day of judgment.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LORD'S SUPPER

Today we serve the sacrament of our Lord's Supper. All who are committed members of a Christian church and under its watch-care are welcomed to this table by the path of personal repentance and faith in the finished work of Christ. We encourage you to hold the first element of bread until all have received, then to take it together as a sign of our common bond in Christ. Please take the cup as the Lord prompts, as a sign of our individual life in our Lord Christ. Actual communion wine is in the outer ring of each tray; unfermented wine (grape juice) is in the interior rings of each tray. And may Jesus Christ be praised!

MEN'S SHELTER

We will once join with the Ballantyne, Rehobeth, and Sovereign Grace congregations to serve dinner to nearly 300 homeless men at the Uptown Shelter. If you can bake a casserole or two for delivery on next Sunday, please sign the sheet on the table in the foyer. You will need to bring your casserole to the church no later than 3:00 on Saturday, or call Rick Conant and he will pick it up on that day.

ALL SAINTS' PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Through the Holy Spirit comes the restoration to paradise, the ascent to the kingdom of heaven, the return to adopted sonship, the freedom to call God our Father and to become a companion of the grace of Christ, to be called a child of light, to participate in eternal glory, and, generally, to have all fullness of blessing in this age and the age to come. We see as in a mirror the grace, as already present, of the goods laid up in store for us in promises, and we enjoy these goods through faith. For, if such is the pledge, how great will be fullness be? If such is the first fruits, what will be the fulfillment of the whole?

“On the Holy Spirit”, Basil the Great, 329-379 A.D.
